How Do I Get a Logon For Software Downloads

How Do I Get a Logon For Software Downloads

How do R1Soft customers login for downloads?

Existing customers use your R1Soft Customer Portal Login. This is where you view your license keys.

I am not a customer how do I get Trial software?

Register as a new user here http://download.r1soft.com or contact sales http://www.r1soft.com/index.php?id=360.

I forgot my login to the R1Soft customer portal what do I do?

Go to http://support.r1soft.com and create a new issue in the category Licensing and Billing and ask for your logon information. If you don't have a R1Soft tech support account you can create one online at http://support.r1soft.com

Can I use my forum user or tech support user to login to download?

No the forum (http://forum.r1soft.com) and tech support help desk (http://support.r1soft.com) each have different logins.
