Reporting

The system provides the ability to send information about Task fulfillment via email. You can choose from users and groups on the CDP Server, or specify email addresses to deliver the report to. You can define a recurrence for this email. You can specify the information to be received with the help of filters. There is filtering by Agent, Task type, state, alert, and log message level.