Solved Issue of License Changes Not Being Reflected on CDP Server

Symptom

Once changes have been applied to the license, they are not reflected on the CDP Server until a CDP Server service reboot occurs.

Resolution

The issue has been corrected in CDP 4.2.1. License changes now work for Windows and Linux 32-bit and 64-bit fresh installs and upgrades of CDP Server. No reboot is required to add a new feature to the CDP Server.

Related Articles

Page: Activating CDP Standard Edition (CDP) Labels: standard_edition, license

Page: Activating CDP Enterprise Edition (CDP) Labels: enterprise_edition, license

Page: Activating CDP Advanced Edition (CDP) Labels: advanced_edition, license

Page: Viewing License Information (CDP) Labels: standard_edition, enterprise_edition, advanced_edition, configuration, license

Page: Reactivating the License (CDP) Labels: standard_edition, enterprise_edition, advanced_edition, license

Page: Returning Unused License (CDP) Labels: license

Page: Registering a Paid Standard Edition License (CDP) Labels: license

Page: CDP Server License Validation Waits for 3 Days (CDP) Labels: license

Page: Solved Issue of License Changes Not Being Reflected on CDP Server (CDP) Labels: license